

Steve Could be Anywhere!

A 32 bar reel for 3 couples

George Whitehorne – 1991
(revised 1997)

At Unicoi '91, Lucy asked what dances were on the list, just as I was reading aloud from the schedule of events "Steve could be anywhere..." "That must be a new dance:, she said. So, here it is.

Bars

- 1 – 8 1st woman cast off below 3rd woman, dance around 3rd woman, and up the middle, back to place. At the same time, 1st man dance down the middle, cast up around 3rd man and dance back to place.
- 9 – 16 1st, 2nd, and 3rd couple dance Crossover Reels of three, on the sides. 1st couple crosses over below 2nd couple to start. 1st man passes 3rd woman by the right, 1st woman passes 3rd man by the left. 2nd couple dances out and up, 3rd couple dances in and up. As each couple reaches the top of the set, they cross over to the opposite side, following the track of the 1st couple. All end the reel back in their own places.
- 17 – 24 1st man, followed by his partner, casts off, crosses below 3rd couple. and dances up behind the woman's side to 1st place on woman's side. 1st woman dances around third man and up the middle of the dance to finish in 1st place on the mens side. Both finish facing in.
- 25 – 26 1st and 2nd couple dance right hands across half way
- 27 – 28 1st and 3rd couple dance left hands across halfway
- 29 – 30 1st and 3rd men and, 1st and 3rd woman, change places by the right.
- 31 – 32 2nd, 1st, and 3rd couples, cross by the left, to own sides of the dance.

Repeat having passed a couple
